LOCATION

Wellswood is a highly desirable village located in Torquay, South Devon. Naughty But Nice is located in the stylish parade of Victorian properties housing all the amenities to serve this affluent community including a deli, pub, post office, supermarket and a number of independent retailers. The property is only a 10 minute walk from Anstey's Cove and Meadfoot Beach or 15 minutes to the Harbourside and town. All three coastal resorts of Torquay, Paignton and Brixham form the borough of Torbay, with Torquay facing south over the bay and recognised as its principal town.

DESCRIPTION

There has been a patisserie trading from this location for over 50 years. Naughty But Nice is recognised for providing quality pastries, breads, cakes and chocolates, sandwiches & baguettes to the discerning customer which can be enjoyed on the premises with fresh coffee, teas, hot chocolate and cold drinks or as take away. The unit is well equipped to continue trading as is or the café and menu could be extended by the next operator.
