DESCRIPTION

Geno's Café is a long standing business under its current ownership since 1996. Although the café has been trading for a lot longer! The owners are now looking to retire. Geno's is a traditional daytime café with a loyal clientele occupying a very visible corner location on one of the main arterial roads into Torquay, which runs through the main holiday accommodation area towards the sea front. The café is also surrounded by large residential areas. The commercial area of Torre is located at the top of Torquay's town centre and is popular with a wide variety of independent businesses.

Geno's offers seating for 43 customers internally, the large picture windows to both sides of the premises provides the café with natural light creating a bright and airy space in which to enjoy the café's fayre. Geno's also benefits from a large outside seating area for circa 12. The business trades Monday-Friday 8am-3pm, extending to 9am-3pm on a Saturday, closed Sundays. Customers enjoy a range of freshly cooked breakfasts and lunches served with a choice of hot or cold beverages.
