The property fronts the B3357 which is one of the main routes through the Park, linking Tavistock with Ashburton in the South. Princetown is approximately 5 miles East of Merrivale.

The hamlet is dominated by the former Merrivale granite quarry which closed in 1997. Some of the finest London buildings and Old London Bridge, now in the USA, are adorned by Merrivale grey granite. The few buildings surrounding the Inn were originally built for quarry workers and are now private houses.
